Ing. Vladimír Švec (60) a retired officer of the Slovak Armed forces, spend is devoted to aeromodelling and aviation for his whole life. Since early childhood he was active in building mostly control line models and space models. For many years he is the backbone of the Slovak Spacemodelling community in eastern Slovakia, especially in his native town of Bardejov. To his biggest sporting successes count silver and bronze team medals at World and European Championships in class S5C (scale altitude). He was even more successful as team manager. Under his management, the Slovak national team in the years 2014-2016 (in 2016 the Slovak team was awarded best overall team at the World Spacemodelling Championships) won several Champion titles and medals. His current students almost always place under the top five at World or Continental Championships. Beside sporting and educational activities, he is also involved in international cooperation, especially with Spacemodelling clubs from Poland, Serbia, Croatia and Slovenia, where he specializes on development of educational models and materials for juniors.
