Conclusion:

This second edition of the F3A World Cup is very successful with a progression of 25 % of the participants and 28 % of the entries. The average participation by contest is in progression of 17% with 29 pilots in 2008 against 34 in 2009.

The greatest part of the results is fast sent by e-mail, but some organizers forget to give the names of the judges and jury's members.
