

FAI - CASI MEETING 2015

CASI - Proposal to amend the Sporting Code, General Section re Termination and Cancellation of an Event.

Add:

4.18 Termination and Cancellation of an Event

4.18.1 Termination

a) The Organiser is required to abide by the FAI Sporting Code and the published rules and regulations for the event. If, in the opinion of the Jury, the Organiser fails to do so, the Jury has the right to stop the event and direct the Organiser to abide by the FAI Sporting Code and the published rules and regulations for the event. Once the event is restarted, if, in the Jury's opinion, the Organiser continues to fail to abide by the FAI Sporting Code and the published rules and regulations for the event, the Jury has the right to terminate the event.

b) The Jury has the right to terminate the event if, in its opinion, for whatever reason, the safety of the participants is at risk.

4.18.2 Cancellation

a) An ASC may cancel an event at any time before the Opening Ceremony takes place or before the officially announced starting date by reason of:

- i) Force majeure
- ii) Financial uncertainty regarding event viability
- iii) Risk to the safety of the participants
- iv) Any other pertinent reason

In the likelihood of a cancellation decision, the ASC shall consult with and be advised by the FAI Secretary General.

4.18.3 Political Implications

If an ASC considers a cancellation decision that may have, in its opinion or that of the FAI Secretary General, political implications or repercussions, advice must be taken from the FAI Executive Board, but the decision to cancel always remains that of the ASC concerned.

As a consequence of the above 4.18 amend 5.4.2.4 to read

5.4.2.4 Jury President. The Jury President acts as the Chair at all Jury meetings and is responsible for recording and the publication of all Jury decisions and informing the Organiser and all Competition Officials of such Jury decisions.

4.8.2 Admission into a country. The bid must provide details of any conditions of admission of participants to the country or location of the event. If any restrictions are proposed or found, the FAI Executive Board shall decide whether they are acceptable, having taken advice on sporting aspects from the ASC concerned and the CASI Bureau.
