3.7.2.1. In First Category international sporting events, a competitor represents the NAC that issued the FAI Sporting Licence, unless he belongs to an international team. NACs are responsible for ensuring that holders of their FAI Sporting Licences who participate in second Category international sporting events abide by the FAI Sporting Code and the rules and regulations for the event.

3.11.1. ACCEPTANCE OF SPORTING CODE, RULES AND REGULATIONS. The entrants and competitors are required to know, understand, accept and abide by the Sporting Code and the rules and regulations for the event, and by entering are deemed to accept them without reservation. They should appreciate that they represent the National Team of their NAC, or, in second Category events, are ambassadors for their country, and that they should compete in a sporting manner and that their behaviour must be beyond reproach.

8.1.3.6 Rights of representation

8.1.3.6.1 Citizen. A citizen of a country may be issued with a FAI Sporting Licence to represent the NAC of that country in first Category sporting events, *and to participate in second Category sporting events, and in other FAI activities such as record attempts. 8.1.3.6.2.2. Other FAI Events and Activities. *A resident of a country who is not a citizen of that country may be issued with a FAI Sporting Licence by the NAC of his country of residence to participate in Second Category sporting events and other FAI activities such as record attempts, subject to 8.1.3.2 that prevents the holding of two sporting licences ~~at once~~. simultaneously(ed.change by Max B.)*

8.1.3.6.3 Multiple Citizenship. A person who has multiple citizenship may freely select the NAC of one of those countries of citizenship to apply for an FAI Sporting License. If such a person subsequently wishes to change to another country of his/her citizenship, this may be done regardless of place of residence, subject to 8.1.3.6.4 on changes of representation

8.1.3.6.4 Change of Representation - First Category Events. *If a person has represented a country in a First Category event, that person must not represent another country in any First Category event during the entire two calendar years (1 January to 31 December) following the calendar year in which the person represented the preceding country.
